

A DEMO Extract from Act 2 Scene [4] of Sir Thomas More to which Shakespeare is believed to have contributed lines including the famous ‘immigration’ speech below

The action leading up to [this point] may be summarized as follows: the commons [ordinary people in trade and apprentices] are shown as ill-treated and properly outraged by the high-handed and illegal actions of certain of the foreign groups on London, who, for economic reasons have been allowed by the authorities to flout the law and to make life miserable for honest Englishmen; they determine to stage a bloody revolt on the following May Day, in which the “aliens” will be massacred and their houses burned; word of the revolt is brought to the authorities, and Thomas More, then a Sheriff of London, is prevailed upon to address the angry commons in an attempt to stem the rebellion by persuasion rather than arms.
